The stable is approximately 20 minutes south of Waldorf on US 301.

The last traffic light in La Plata is at the intersection of 301 and Route 6.

There is an Exxon and a Mobil at this intersection.

Continue on 301 South for approximately 10 miles to Bel Alton.

On the left side of 301 you will see a country store called "The Red Top". It has a bright red roof.

On the right side of 301, directly across from the Red Top, you will see a large yellow and blue billboard advertising "Capt. Billy's Crabhouse".

Turn right at the billboard sign. You will be on Popes Creek Road. There are also signs along 301 for Popes Creek Road and Capt. Billy's.

Go approximately ½ mile on Popes Creek Road.

Turn right on the first gravel road. This is Brentfield Place.

Follow the driveway all the way in. You will see a white and green barn on the left.
